

The University – An International Meeting Arena

A Science History Seminar

Thursday 3rd September 2015 at 14:00

Organizers: The Finnish Society for the History of Science and Learning & Helsinki University Museum

Venue: University of Helsinki, Fabianinkatu 33, room 13

14.00 Opening speech

Chair of the Finnish Society for the History of Science and Learning, Cecilia af Forselles

14.15 Keynote speech

Pieter Dhondt: Continuities in a Changing International Context. The Jubilees of Helsinki University as Perceived by Foreign Guests, 1840-1990

15.00 -16.00 Session I

Chair: Maija Kallinen

Klaus Karttunen & Johan Stén: International Cooperation in the Royal Academy of Åbo (Turku)

Elise Garritzen: Finnish Historians and their International Interests (c. 1860-1914): Encounters, Influences and Impressions

Break

16.00 – 17.00 Session II

Tero Halonen: The Faculty of Agriculture and Forestry and Post-war American Research Financing in the 1950's and the 1960's

Daniela Steila (Visiting Fellow of the Alexander Institute): The Slavonic Library in Helsinki and its Impact for East-European Studies. Sharing an Experience.

Invitation

After the seminar the participants are invited to view the new exhibition The Power of Thought at the Helsinki University Museum on the third floor in the same building.